

DRESS CODE for CYC Main Dining Room

Yacht Club Casual - defined as collared shirts, khakis, skirts or slacks, resort shorts, and formal jeans (defined as jeans that are not ripped, frayed, patched, or otherwise distressed). Tennis whites are acceptable.

Dress Code for other parts of club and for special events

Prior to 6 pm, casual attire (as defined below) is acceptable throughout the Clubhouse and on the Porch seven days a week.

After 6 pm, Yacht Club Casual attire (as defined below) is required throughout the Clubhouse and on the Porch seven days a week.

All events that require Formal or Cocktail attire (as defined below) will be noted in the invitation and notice for the event.

Below are the definitions of attire categories in descending order of formality.

Formal - defined as black tie. Typical events include Commodore's Ball.

Cocktail - may be defined as jacket & tie required, jacket required, or jacket optional for men with corresponding appropriate attire for women. Typical events include Opening and Closing Nights, Guest Chef, etc.

Yacht Club Casual - defined as collared shirts, khakis, skirts or slacks, resort shorts, and formal jeans (defined as jeans that are not ripped, frayed, patched, or otherwise distressed). Tennis whites are acceptable.

Casual - defined as boating and sailing attire, men's swim shorts, and neat t-shirts. Women's swim attire is not allowed unless an appropriate cover up is worn, and the cover up must be of an appropriate length and not made of see through or mesh material.

The wearing of hats by men is not permitted in the Clubhouse at any time.